INTERNATIONAL COURTESY VISIT SERIES OF ATAFOM UNIVERSITY
INTERNATIONAL BY ATAFOM DELEGATION TO THE VICE CHANCELLOR, UNIVERSITY OF JOS ON JANUARY 9TH, 2024.

In keeping with the vision and mission of our esteemed President of ATAFOM University International, Dr. Sakir Yavuz, centered on "Education for Integration", the ATAFOM University Information Office Nigeria conducted a productive meeting on January 9, 2024 with the distinguished Vice-Chancellor, Professor Tanko Ishaya, at the University of Jos. Discussions revolved around fortifying our Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and fostering collaborative programs. The meeting began with a brief introduction by Mrs Jamila Abubakar, Director of ATAFOM Language Academy and Head of ATAFOM University Information Office, Nigeria. She thanked the Vice-Chancellor for hosting the team and opened a joint discussion on how ATAFOM University International can consolidate the established Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the University of Jos.

The Vice-Chancellor appreciated the commitment of ATAFOM University International to the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the University of Jos. He further spoke about the issue of the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) which had laid a foundation on how the two Universities could better collaborate.

He sought more clarification on the programs that would be run by ATAFOM University International and expatiated on the nature of the collaboration to be established along the following lines:

a. Staff and student exchange – The staff of ATAFOM University International could come and study at the University of Jos while students at the University of Jos could attend to some of their courses at ATAFOM University International, based on the agreed programmes of interaction.

b. Student exchange – A student from any department – University of Jos or ATAFOM University International – could spend a semester in either University as a means of exposure and exchange. This would have some financial implications, but it will be looked into to ensure maximum benefits for the two Universities.

The Vice-Chancellor at this point narrated his experience while on a visit to the UK where he was sent to China to look at the curriculum and establish an exchange programme for the students in the UK and China. He was able to work on a model where students would spend a year or more in each of the Universities.

c. Research exchange – The academic staff from the two Universities could engage in collaborative writing of papers, publishing journals and so on.

d. Result sharing – The staff and students could share results including those achieved through IT or even online. The results garnered from the two sides would be evaluated and used to build a stronger and more resilient relationship between the two Universities.

The Vice-Chancellor cited that the University of Jos is responsible for informing the Nigerian Universities Commission (NUC) about the collaboration between ATAFOM University International and the University of Jos. He added that in the past, he had been involved in establishing a similar collaboration between the University of Jos and Salford University in the UK. The two Universities agreed on a 50% discount. Similarly, he cited another collaboration that was created with Gotham University which resulted in helping students, providing human resource training, scholarships for students and so on. He gave these examples to assure ATAFOM University International that they are in safe hands partnering with the University of Jos in a MoU. The Vice-Chancellor requested that based on the MoU, ATAFOM University International should write specifically on the programs they intend to run in collaboration with the University of Jos. He affirmed his willingness and availability to join the team of lecturers if need be. He also made an offer to ATAFOM University about having a location within the University. If this was a welcome idea then NUC would be contacted so that a space could be provided. It would be a study centre which is established with a written document on the tenures of academic staff, fee structures and all the needed information to consolidate the MoU.

The team from ATAFOM University International, Nigeria arose from the meeting with great elation and high hopes. The Vice-Chancellor bid them farewell with appreciation for a fruitful engagement.

ATAFOM University International Info Office Nigeria Jos - a place I always wanted to be I always feel like I am in the right place whenever I step in the office; this is as a result of these two sayings 'always be in a room where you feel like you are the least' and 'whenever you are in a room with people and you feel like you are the greatest, then you are in the wrong place' as there is nothing challenging you to do more.

Experience, feel, live ATAFOM Spirit

I am surrounded by so many great minds, talented and awe-inspiring individuals, which constantly propels me to strive for improvement. As I know that I would possibly be out of place if I cannot bring something new to the table.

A notable fact about ATAFOM is their attention to details, this allows for the discovery of new insights. Dedication, loyalty and hard work are some of the very important characteristics required here at the university.

I envision ATAFOM reaching enviable heights, knowing that anything built on solid foundations is unlikely to crumble. Another commendable thing is the great discipline that helps in ensuring decorum.

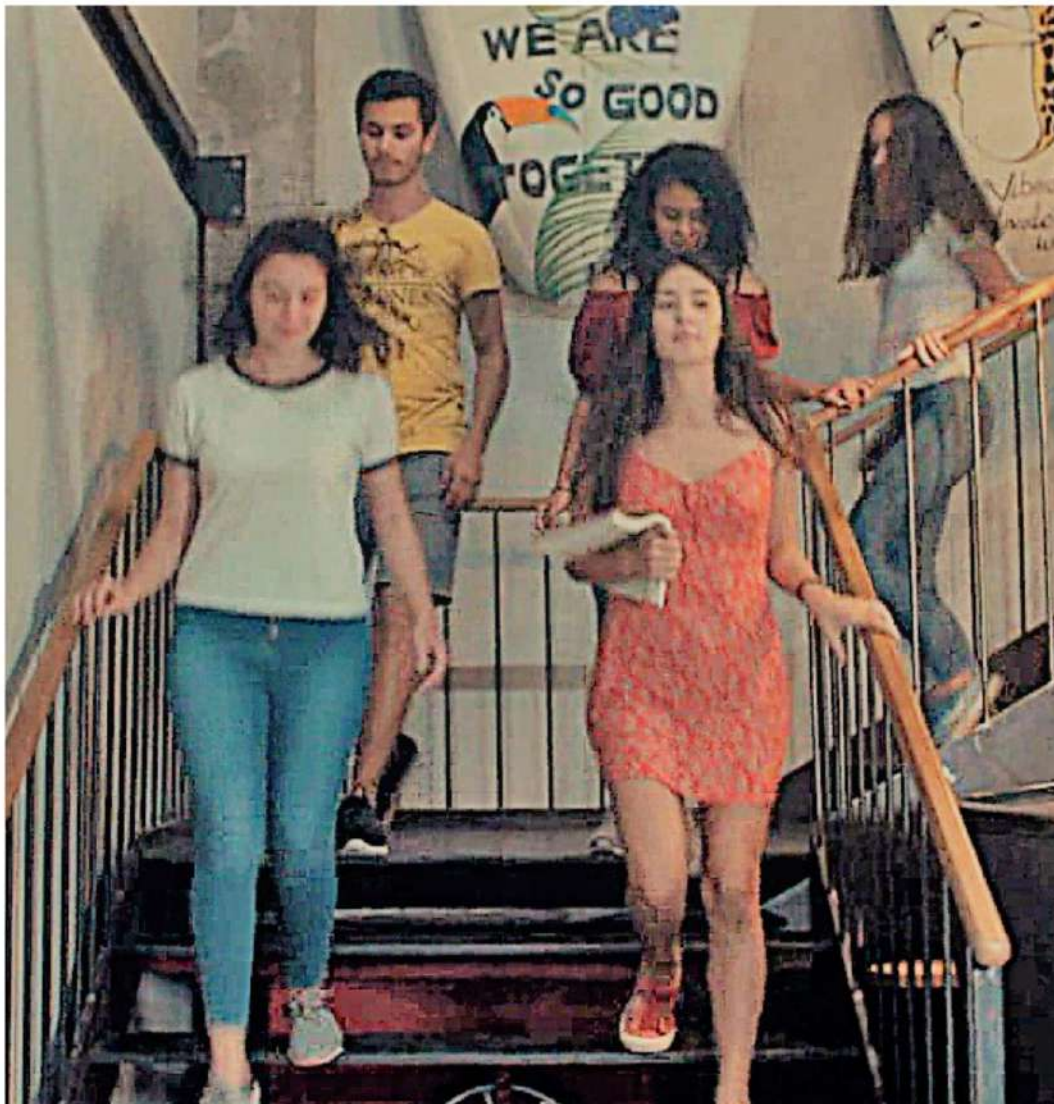

Teach English to the next generation at ATAFOM Language Academy

It's pivotal to make mention of the efficiency and uniqueness of ALA classes as well. It is so inspiring to see these technological tools being utilized flawlessly making it accessible to diverse groups of people. This helps in paving way for inclusivity and diversity. Another thing worthy of mention is the warmth and receptiveness of both staff and students at the ATAFOM Language Academy. The staffs are ever willing to help and the students give off so much warmth which helps in creating a friendly teaching environment.

Dr. Sakir Yavuz's vision and mission

My experiences so far have been very interesting in every respect and very enlightening for me, even though I have only been part of the ATAFOM family for a few months. I would like to use this medium to thank the president and the entire administration for giving me the opportunity to impact lives to the best of my ability.

So far, I have learned that with the right approach and full commitment, as well as in a perfectly functioning team, you can achieve so much in a single working day that it could sometimes take a week if all of these conditions were not right. I learn something new every day and experience the vision and mission of our unique President Dr. Sakir Yavuz here in Nigeria and also in communication and work technology with the ATAFOM members from all over the world. I am very excited to be part of it and to the best of my knowledge and belief to contribute something to this.

WORDS OF WISDOM

-Dr. Sakir Yavuz

WORDS OF WISDOM

“There is only one path to happiness, love, success and wealth, it is the EDUCATION PATH” - Dr. Sakir Yavuz

Life is a journey that never ends. We only stop by several destinations, reach many milestones and cross innumerable hurdles to keep moving forward. Since childhood, our parents have tried to give us an understanding of achieving big in our future years. They put efforts to help us tread the right path to success and wealth. Our minds are fed from the beginning that if we achieve wealth and success, happiness and love follow. We need to understand that we are in a phase of constant learning. Learning comes through every person and moment we come across in our lifetime.

Education is a quintessential part of learning which shapes our personality. Knowledge and learning together are the foundation stones of education.

To attain happiness, love, success and wealth, you must walk on the path of education. Education improves not just our cognitive abilities but strengthens our overall personality. An education under the guidance and supervision of our mentors helps us gain a competitive edge to step forward in life with confidence and zeal. Education also teaches us to differentiate between right and wrong. We learn from our mistakes, but education helps us make the right decisions in life. Understanding our surroundings and society can be gained through education. When a person can make the right decisions, he is happy and content with whatever comes his way. And when you are happy, you attract love. Love plays a role in making your life better.

Success is achieved by working diligently towards your career goals. You must be adamant to become successful in achieving what you want. Being educated pushes you to build a successful career. And last but not least, wealth comes running behind you. Gaining success and wealth is not a fairytale. You can have happiness, love, success and wealth if you are guided by the light of knowledge on the path of education.

So now is the time to make your way to a happier and successful life. Get set and run towards the path of education.

In other golden words of our dearest President, Dr Sakir Yavuz, “The success of every action begins in the head.”

LIVE A LIFE WITHOUT BOUNDARIES AND CHASE YOUR DREAMS

By Comfort Bulus

It would help if you constantly reminded yourself that you are who you are and where you are because of yourself to succeed. You choose to be where you are, which is why you are there. You are where you are because of your unique choices and decisions. It is entirely up to you to make the decisions and choices today that will ultimately bring you where you want to go or who you want to be. There are also no restrictions.

Positive Thoughts Can Transform Your Life

An excellent guideline is that if you want your life to improve, you must improve. Simply put, this indicates that your outer environment will reflect your inner world. Therefore, you must enhance your inner world to strengthen your external environment. For example, you must develop into a better and more approachable salesperson if you want better clients and more sales. You must improve as a manager if you wish to better workers. You must improve as a parent if you're going to raise better kids. Additionally, improving yourself to have better connections would be best. The greatest tragedy is that many people must focus on changing their thought processes before altering the external environment.

A Shift in Perspective

A further guideline is that if you adjust the quality of your thinking, you improve the quality of your life. There are no restrictions on how you can change and improve every aspect of your life in any direction you want because you can change the quality of your thinking nearly infinitely. Positive thinking is a topic that is frequently discussed today, and it is crucial. It is far preferable for you to think positively about who you are and what you are capable of than to think negatively. The issue is that optimistic thinking can quickly transform into happy hoping and wanting. A person might become an extremely upbeat and content failure by wanting and hoping in the right ways. Men and women undervalue themselves and accept considerably less than what they are capable of throughout the history of the human race. Stop allowing this to happen to you.

The Influence of Positive Belief

Instead of thinking positively, try 'positive knowledge.' Now is the time to take action and carry out the tasks that will get you to the point where you are 100% positive that you can accomplish your objectives and experience the level of success that is achievable for you. No matter what occurs in the outer world, even if you lose everything you have gained, you will make it all back again and more when you reach the stage of positive knowledge because you already know how to accomplish it. Furthermore, these ways of thinking and seeing the world will help you develop into a much more upbeat, self-assured, and creative person in all you do. In addition, you can use these straightforward, practical strategies to overcome your limitations and start taking steps toward reaching your full potential.

Dream Big and There Are No Limits

Great success and achievement have always had the exact origin. Therefore, you should 'dream big dreams.' Nothing is more crucial or more effective than for you to let go of your restrictions and start daydreaming and fantasising about the great things you can be, have, and do. A wise man once remarked that you must imagine great ideas because only huge dreams can influence men's thinking. Your self-esteem and confidence will rise immediately when you have big plans. Your sense of self will change. You have a more positive outlook on who you are and how you can handle whatever comes your way. The fact that so many individuals never allow themselves to let go and see the kind of life they might lead is the reason why they accomplish so little.

We grow more quickly, feel better about ourselves, and eventually start an upward spiral of happiness when actively pursuing essential goals. We might gain more from the process than the result. You should choose and value the strategies and actions you will use to achieve your goals. No matter who you are or where you are from, you can improve your life. Dreams provide us with a feeling of direction and meaning, assist us in maintaining a happy outlook, and have the power to alter our lives drastically. You deserve to lead a happy life, and it all begins with establishing realistic goals.

Anyone can reach their goals with hard work and determination, so don't allow anyone to tell you you can't. Therefore, pursue your aspirations since you never know where they may take you.

At ATAFOM University International, we are interested in helping you dream big and realise all your dreams. With a good education, there are countless things you can achieve. We are determined to provide the best and propel you to heights you did not think you could attain. Enrol with us for our summer semester today and live the good life of fulfilled dreams.
